

Wikipedia Tips and Tricks

- To quickly search a WIKIPEDIA article from the GOOGLE search bar enter the name of what you are looking for followed by the word “WIKI” e.g. fish wiki
- There is a simple version of every long Wikipedia article called “Simple Wikipedia”. To quickly search a SIMPLE WIKIPEDIA article from the GOOGLE search bar enter the name of what you are looking for followed by the words “WIKI SIMPLE” e.g. fish wiki simple
- If your Wikipedia article comes up in a foreign language you can quickly see it in English by clicking on “english” in the language options at the bottom of the menu column on the left hand side of the screen.
- Any word in a Wikipedia article can be defined by an internal search inside Wikipedia. To activate this go to <http://math-www.uni-paderborn.de/~axel/bookmarklet.html> and drag the blue underlined “Wikipedia search” words to your browsers toolbar. Then you simply drag across any word in any Wikipedia article and then click on the “Wikipedia search” button on your browser toolbar and you’ll get the chosen word explained or defined.
- To create a perfectly formatted PDF file from any Wikipedia article – click on the “Download as PDF” button found on the menu column on the left hand side of the screen (this is great when you want to insert the info into a book).
